MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

A detention hearing has been held in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The following requires detention of the defendant pending trial in this case:

- (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear; and
- (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

The evidence against the defendant is substantial. The defendant admitted he was being paid to keep aliens on his family's property. The findings and conclusions contained in the Pretrial Services Report are adopted. The defendant failed to comply with his previous probation, wrote hot checks while he was on probation, and failed to respond to notices to go to court. The instant offense was committed on his family's property. Placement back at home where the crimes were committed is not appropriate. The defendant is a regular drug user and a poor bond candidate. His history demonstrates that he is either unwilling or unable to comply with court-ordered conditions of release.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Marshal or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED this 4th day of May, 2012.

B. JANICE ELLINGTON
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
